

How To Live With Guilt

Text: Lev.4:27-31 and Heb. 10:11-18

Contrast of Guilt in the OT vs. the NT

1. Define Guilt

A. Having committed a S _____ or I _____ offense or crime

1. Meaning? You commit a crime you are G _____ of that offense

2. The meaning of guilt implies that you did something w _____

B. To make someone or yourself F _____ guilty even if you did nothing wrong.

1. This is a more P _____ use of the word.

2. This is the most common use in our society- especially among

C _____.

Simply Stated- If you feel G _____ you did something W _____! If you didn't do anything wrong then you have M _____ guilt.

C. How does the B _____ define guilt? Should a Christian feel or have guilt anymore?

2. Guilt as defined in the O _____ T _____.

A. Guilt and A _____ (Hebrew word)

1. Guilt was always associated with having to make

A _____ for going against the Law.

Lev. 5:1-6

B. The difference between S _____ and G _____.

1. Asam point to the breach in R _____ that sin causes, and particular to the I _____ that results.

2. Example- Gen. 26- Isaac and Rebecca with Abimelech

C. Going against your N _____ required payback.

Lev. 6:1-5

1. God made sure the person wronged was taken care of- the guilty had to make it right on their own.

Asam is used _____ times in the OT. All having to do with what was needed to relieve guilt.

Isa. 53:10

3. Guilt in the N _____ T _____

Romans 8:1

A. There is no New Testament equivalent to OT word

A _____
1. Guilt is only used _____ times in the NT
Matt. 23:35; Luke 23; John 19

B. S _____ and I _____ is still significant in the NT, but in a different way.

1. Sin is still called " _____ " (Luke 15:18,19) but our

R _____ have vanished. Why?

Romans 4:7,8 and 4:23-5:1

a. We now have P _____ with God because Jesus took on our O _____!

b. Jesus became our S _____ O _____ talked about in Lev. 5

C. What to do about our P _____ guilt so many have?

1. Ephesians 1:7

2. 1 John 2:2- He Himself is our PROPITIATION (The

A _____ S _____)

3. Christ is our D _____

A _____
Gal. 2:20, Eph. 1:7, Col. 1:12-14

We will all find ourselves more useful for His use if we can just trust God and what He said, "I will remember their sin no more"